

Intensive Study Program

Information for partner universities and students

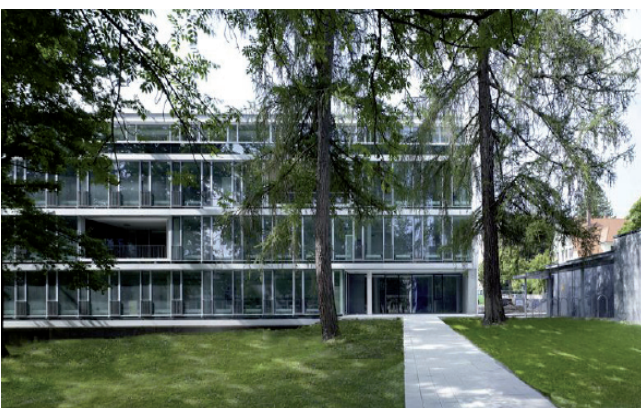

BADEN-WUERTTEMBERG COOPERATIVE STATE UNIVERSITY

DHBW Villingen-Schwenningen

The DHBW Villingen-Schwenningen lies in the heart of the beautiful Black Forest region. The dual concept of the university integrates companies and social institutions as active partners in higher education, and therefore fosters graduates of high quality and employability.

At our university, students benefit from a well-equipped modern campus, highly qualified teaching staff from different business and academic backgrounds, close relations with employers and a range of amenities to support their intellectual development.

Villingen-Schwenningen and Germany

The Federal Republic of Germany is located in the heart of Europe.

About 82.6 million people live in Germany; the country boasts great cultural diversity, charming towns and attractive landscapes. Villingen-Schwenningen, a city of 81,000 inhabitants, is situated in one of the most popular tourist destinations in Germany. The city offers an enticing mix of the modern and the traditional and profits from its central location in one of Germany's most beautiful regions, the Black Forest.

Intensive Study Program

Information for partner universities and students

BADEN-WUERTTEMBERG COOPERATIVE STATE UNIVERSITY

Internationalization

International relations are an important aspect of forward-thinking studies and for a successful entry into a career. Partnerships with foreign universities are highly valued by our university and we look forward to welcoming students from all over the world to Villingen-Schwenningen.

Intensive Study Program

The Intensive Study Program at DHBW Villingen-Schwenningen is a one or two-week academic event organized for students from partner institutions (groups of 15 to 25 students). The program combines different forms of learning such as lectures, round-table discussions, group-work, and presentations and is complemented by a varied cultural program. Students visit local enterprises for insights on working in Germany. They are awarded a certificate at the end of the program. International lecturers add to the open and diverse atmosphere; courses can be chosen individually by the visiting universities.

Accommodation

Students stay at a nearby youth hostel with moderated prices. They have access to all university facilities, such as the cafeteria and the library.

Costs

Students cover their travel expenses to and from Villingen-Schwenningen as well as their living expenses. A fee of approximately €100 covers admission fees and local transportation.

Contact

If you are interested in an Intensive Study Program at DHBW Villingen-Schwenningen, please contact Program Coordinator Angela Brusi at the International Office:

brusis@dhbw-vs.de

To find out more about our university, visit us online at www.dhbw-vs.de/en/international.html

-
- THE INTERNATIONAL TEAM AT
- DHBW VILLINGEN-SCHWENNINGEN
- LOOKS FORWARD TO WELCOMING YOU!
-

